LADIES!

Have you seen the Grand Display of
MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

We are making during our Special Sale?

Do you know that you can buy splendid made Corset Covers and Drawers at 19, 25, 35, 45, 55, 65, 75, 85 and 95 cents, and as much finer as you desire? Do you realize that we sell the latest style of Chemise and Skirts from 25c up? Mother Hubbard and Sack Gowns, beautifully made and trimmed, from 45c up? There is no trash in this lot of goods, but they are the best goods for the money that the best manufacturers can turn out. Do you know that we are sole agents in this city for all goods made by Simon Stearns & Co., and shall be glad to point out their superiority to those interested? It doesn't cost you a penny more to buy good goods that are rightly made, and afterward you will want no other. How often we hear expressions of disgust from ladies who have been led by flash advertisements to invest in goods that do not stand the test of comparison. Make no mistake. See our stock. Examine work, material and styles, and you will be forced to admit that ours is the

The Sentinel.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20.

SENTINEL TELEPHONE CALLS.
Business Office, 164; Editorial Rooms, 201

THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The Pierceton Associates Woolen Mills have been incorporated. Capital stock, $15,000.

W. H. Smith, a traveling man well known in this city, died at Newport, Ky., the other day.

Robert N. Lamb has been appointed administrator of the estate of Jane M. Waldo. Bond, $3,000.

John B. Green yesterday gave bond in the sum of $2,000 as Trustee of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

A carpenter named Stephen Thalwaker, whose home is in this city, committed suicide at Springfield, Mo., on Tuesday.

A letter has been received from Mrs. A. M. Nee, who is representing the women's department of Indiana at the World's Fair, in which she gives a glowing account of the same.

David Henderson, a fugitive from justice, was arrested last evening at the residence of a relative, at 145 South New Jersey street. He is wanted at Peru on a charge of bastardy, Miss Maggie Smith, of that place, causing his arrest. Henderson will be taken to Peru to day.

The Department was called out yesterday morning to extinguish a slight blaze in McDonald & Butler's law office. Loss, $11.

The National Benefit Association has elected M. Henning President, Ralph Worthington Vice President, and John A. Wilkins Secretary and Comptroller.

Police Commissioner Thomas Cottrell was sworn in yesterday morning by the County Clerk. He gave $2,000 for faithful performance. Hon. A. H. Brown and Judge B. K. Elliott becoming his sureties.

Albert Woods, with two bad cuts on the top of his head, inflicted by some unknown individual in a Malott avenue saloon, was removed to the City Hospital in Plummer & Hammann's ambulance yesterday afternoon.

Mr. John C. New sent the fire boys at headquarters a very elegant lunch of oysters and wine yesterday afternoon in recognition of the energetic style in which they suppressed a blaze at her residence a few days since.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Colonel I. D. McDonald, a hero of the war and of many Democratic campaigns, called to see us yesterday. We need not remind the good Colonel that he is always entirely welcome.

John Fisher, Crown Point; S. J. Brush, Columbus; George Harrison, Rockville; L. Balavia and W. C. Forley, Connersville; William D. Kizer, Winchester, are at the Hotel English.

Major H. P. Shaffer, of Madison County, and the popular Hon. W. F. Sherrod, now physician of the State Prison South, called upon us yesterday. The Sentinel's heartiest good will is with the noble Mexican survivors and with their efforts to secure from the government the pension recognition they so well deserve.

The Sentinel office was enlivened yesterday by the presence of several old heroes of the Mexican War. Major McFadin, of Logansport, called in company with Colonel Faris Forney, of Vandalia, Ill., who commanded the Third Illinois Regiment throughout that conflict, and was in the battles of Vera Cruz and Cerro Gordo.

I. B. McDonald, Columbia City; J. A. Henry and wife, Rev. W. J. Jordan, I. E. Haskell, Fort Wayne; D. W. Bainsley, Newcastle; N. W. Smith, P. F. Bailey, Rushville; George Hathaway, Greencastle; C. A. Barnett, P. H. Danyville; J. W. Heiser, Newcastle; G. W. Gibson, Marion; Thomas Qualler, T. B. Bates, W. R. Robinson, Tipton; L. H. McCollum, Seymour, are at the Occidental.

At the Bates House: J. M. Sellers, W. N. Thompson, J. H. Barford, R. B. Pierce, A. P. Reynolds, M. D. White, Crawfordsville; John C. Mack, C. A. Ray, Terre Haute; D. T. McNeil, Kokomo; C. A. Cole, Peru; J. Crow, Jr., J. D. Lott, A. C. Lockridge, Greencastle; W. J. Cunningham, Ed. H. Stuart, Lafayette; Q. Kronenberg and mother, R. Craynes, Madison; C. E. Cook and wife, North Vernon; J. K. Scott, Martinsville; J. W. Finfrock, Richmond; A. Leal, J. Richardson, Miss Richardson, Winchester.

Quarterly Meetings.

The appointments of W. R. Halstead, Presiding Elder of the Indianapolis District, Indiana Conference, third quarter, are as follows:

Indianapolis, Meridian Street, March 1; Blackford, March 1; California Street, March 7-8; Ames, March 7-8; Mooresville, March 7-8; Brooklyn, March 21-22; Morgantown, March 28-29; Monrovia, April 4-5; Martinsville, March 28-29; Clay City, April 11-12; Waverly, April 11-12; Quincy, April 18-19; Bowling Green, April 18-19; Center Point, April 25-26; Cary, May 2-3; Pataamville, May 2-3; Belleville, May 9-10; Locust Street, Greencastle, May 16-17; South Greencastle, May 16-17; West Newton, May 23-24.

Moody Notes.

Members of city choirs will meet to-night at 7:30 p. m., and be provided with platform tickets admitting to all sessions of the convention.

Mr. W. C. DePauw will address the convention at the Tuesday afternoon session at 3 o'clock. Business men are requested to make this their session in honor of the worthy speaker.

One of the pleasant features of the convention will be the singing of Professor Towner and wife, of Cincinnati.

The Moody Convention at Fort Wayne opens this morning and closes on Saturday night.

The afternoon prayer meetings at Roberts Park Church have had an increased attendance daily. Dr. A. H. Carrier will conduct the last of the series this afternoon, commencing at 4:30 o'clock.

A New Departure.

Beginning this morning, the Wigwam Rink will inaugurate a new schedule of prices. The general admission will be ten cents to all sessions, with an extra charge of ten cents for skates in the evening and surface free to owners of skates. For entertainments and extra attractions the admission will be twenty cents. This is certainly a cheap rate for this kind of amusement, and if the patrons of this popular resort are not satisfied, no doubt the management could be induced to present each one with a pair of silver-mounted club skates.

A Lafayette Pleasure Party. A party of ladies and gentlemen numbering sixteen will leave Lafayette at 1:30 today for Indianapolis. They come upon the invitation of Miss Hisey, of College avenue, at whose home they will be entertained until evening, when they will attend the Meridian Rink. These ladies and gentlemen compose the Palace Rink German Club, the skating of which has been so pleasantly referred to by the Lafayette papers. The party will return to Lafayette on the midnight train.

His Ante Mortem Statement. The Coroner took the ante mortem statement of John Twine, in which he stated that Banks and he went in the saloon, and the latter was irritated. Twine was smoking a pipe and Banks asked him for it, after which he fired the shot. Twine does not think that Banks intended to kill but only desired to cripple him.

College Avenue Rink. Owing to the cold weather there was but a fair attendance at the College Avenue Rink last evening. To-night there will be a prize game of foot-ball between two northeastern teams. A large crowd is expected.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

Mary Miller Asks to be Delivered From the Custody of the Sheriff—Other Notes.

Esther A. Bristor yesterday took judgment against the Harrisons on a certificate of deposit for $201.88 in Room 1.

In the breach of promise suit of Lizzie Langenberg vs. Frederick Bowling judgment was yesterday entered on the verdict for defendant by Judge Taylor.

In the appeal case of the city vs. Patrick Smith, for loitering, Judge Taylor yesterday entered judgment against Smith for $5 and for costs in the City and Superior Courts.

The suit of Robert Salmon vs. The I. B. and W. Road has been brought from Hendricks County on a change of venue. Plaintiff sues for the value of a mule alleged to have been worth $300, killed by a train. Demand, $400.

Max Gundelfinger has filed to collect a note for $505 made by Margaret E. and W. L. Jennings, which was secured by a certificate of sale by the Sheriff of seven acres of land. This certificate was afterwards assigned to Flora more subject to the payment of the note, and by her and her husband assigned to Benjamin Davis. The note has been lost and can not be given in the complaint. Demand $800, and decree for the sale of the Sheriff's certificate.

William J. Bishop wants a divorce from Elizabeth Bishop, whom he married in March, 1873. He charges cruel treatment, in that she cursed him, threw stove-wood at him, and fought with women on the street, at home, and at church, on one of which occasions she was arrested and fined for beating another woman at church. With a temper seldom below fever heat, defendant made herself abominable, petitioner miserable, and home "unbearable." In June, 1884, she abandoned William. Plaintiff is a coachman.

The attachment of Joseph Miller vs. Joseph Baylis et al., was yesterday dismissed on a compromise, in Room 1. The suit was originally brought by Howard E. Henderson against Baylis, Kennedy & Co's. Bright Light Combination, George A. Dickson & C. T. Gilmore. Henderson alleging that Baylis, Kennedy & Co. were to give two performances at his Opera House in Kokomo and Frankfort each, in the fall of 1883. This they failed to do, to his damage in the sum of $250. The goods were attached in the hands of Gilmore & Dickson. The matter was amicably arranged yesterday between the parties.

Mary Miller, yesterday, filed against Sheriff Carter in a habeas corpus proceeding. Mary is a colored woman, who was fined last summer in one of the Justice's Courts and sent to jail, she refusing to pay the $14.80, which was the amount assessed. Soon after she was incarcerated she gave replevin bail and was released. When this ran out she was again brought in and locked up. When Sheriff Hessler retired Mary was still an inmate of the jail. In the new order of things she was released, but was soon after brought in again. As Mary wants out, and as Sheriff Carter wants the matter settled one way or the other, and as the Court and its officers desire to learn whether or not Mary can defeat them in the process, it is presumed that all parties are anxious to get an opinion from the Court. The case is pending before Judge Howe.

IRON HIGHWAYS.

President Mackey to Assume Control of the T. H. and S. E. To-Day—Earnings of the C. I. St. L. and C.—Other Items.

The office of Commissioner Richardson, of the Chicago and Ohio River pool, was removed to Chicago yesterday.

General Passenger Agent Bronson, of the I. B. and W., is cautioning the public against one Howard Saxby, who is representing himself as manager of the advertising department of the I. B. and W. He is a fraud.

Treasurer Osborne, of the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago Road makes the following statement of earnings for the second week of February: From passengers, $9,643.55; from local freight, $9,097.02; from foreign freight, $9,350; from line freight, $3,730.52; from express $1,273.50; from mail, $2,173; total, $35,270.59; against $27,872 in 1884, adding total of first quarter will amount to $89,243.69. This is certainly a most satisfactory report, and will compare favorably with that of any other road in the country.

President Mackey of the Evansville and Terre Haute will resume control of the Terre Haute and Southeastern to-day. The Evansville and Terre Haute people have been preparing for the change for several days past, and an inspecting party of officials headed by G. J. Grammer, General Passenger Agent, went over the T. H. and S. yesterday. Mr. Grammer says that it is a splendid piece of property, the road being wide and well ballasted. All arrangements have been completed for the handling of freight at the E. and T. H. yard. None of the retiring officials of the Terre Haute and Southeastern have yet determined what they will do. It will not be difficult for them to secure positions as far as they are all men of capacity, ability. President Mackey is credited with the statement that he will increase the T. H. and S.'s earnings at least 20 per cent. Messrs. Mackey, McKee and Collett are thereof the wealthiest, most enterprising and prominent railroad men in the State of Indiana, and the significance and importance of this purchase is not difficult to discern. It has been more than thirty years since the people residing in the country between Evansville and Indianapolis began to talk of the Straight Line. The road is now in successful operation to Washington on the Ohio and Mississippi Road under the control of President Mackey. The building of less than fifty miles of railroad will connect Washington with Worthington and that place with Evansville. This will give Evansville a shorter route to Indianapolis than she has at present, and will give a direct connection with the coal fields. The preliminary steps have been taken for the extension north of Washington and with a return of easy times the Straight Line or E. and I. is likely to be extended as indicated.

Indianapolis Talent at New Castle. A company of Indianapolis talents including Mrs. George H. Fleming, Mrs. Willis D. Engle, Miss Mary Wilder, Miss Lina M. Bario and James A. Duthie, by special invitation, contributed largely to the success of an entertainment given in the opera hall, New Castle, last Monday evening for the benefit of St. James Church, of which Rev. Willis D. Engle has charge. Mr. Duthie, Mrs. Fleming and Miss Bario each gave $50. Mrs. Engle a recitation, while the programme concluded with the operetta Il Jacobi by those named, which proved a fit finale to a
